LEADERSHIP DRIVES EXCELLENCE

The NYU School of Medicine announces its search for the Chair of the Department of Neurology. The Dean and faculty consider this an exceptional opportunity to lead a preeminent academic department in the City of New York and in close collaboration with the other schools and colleges of New York University.

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF NEUROLOGY
NYU School of Medicine & its Affiliated Academic Medical Centers

The Chair of the department has responsibility for the research, education and clinical activities of a faculty that works in several institutions along our unique biomedical corridor. A successful candidate will have an MD degree and will have demonstrated leadership experience in a large academic medical center with a distinguished record of clinical, research and teaching responsibilities.

Applications and nominations with accompanying curriculum vitae should be sent electronically, for confidential review by the search committee, to: Rebecca Elwork, M.H.S.A., Project Manager for Education, Faculty and Academic Affairs, Rebecca.Elwork@nyumc.org

The NYU School of Medicine was founded in 1841 and is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and provides a drug free workplace.
